

EXHIBITION SUBMISSION FORM

TINY

13 January to 10 February 2018
Preview: Thursday 11 January 2018

SLOE Gallery are excited to announce submissions are now open for our first exhibition of 2018, TINY.

TINY will showcase work from artists, makers and designers who work on a tiny scale. We are open to submissions of 2D or 3D work and across all mediums: this could be drawing, painting, mixed media, sculpture or photography, or tiny artwork which is presented in a unique or unexpected way.

We are looking for tiny work with a big impact.

The exhibition will launch for the preview evening on Thursday 11 January 2018 from 6pm to 9pm and will be open to the public from 13th January to 10th February every Saturday 11am to 5pm.

Please complete the submission form below and send to sloegallery@outlook.com by midnight on Monday 20th November 2017.

SLOE Gallery Exhibition Submission Form

TINY

Name
Email
Contact Phone
Website/ social media (if available)

Tell us about yourself as an artist/ designer/ maker, including any details about your practice, your background and relevant experience - Max 250 words

Please describe the work you would like to submit for the TINY exhibition, how it responds to the theme, and why you would like to exhibit the work at SLOE Gallery.

Please include details of media, approximate dimensions/ measurements of your work, and information about any special requirements for installation and/ or technical resources. If applicable, please also include any artwork titles and dates.

(You can attach images to support your submission in the following section)

Max 400 words

Please note: You can submit work from multiple projects- just title each separate description and the corresponding images with a distinct project name. The word limit applies to each project.

Description of TINY work [Continued]

Please attach images of current or previous work which support your submission, including short descriptions and titles/ dates if applicable.

You can also include links to your website/ social media.

Supporting Images [Continued]

